CERTIFIED TRAINER

Do you want to enhance the important relationships in your life?

You are invited to join with other like-minded people in this two-day workshop, suited to both singles and couples, where you will gain tools to build clear and respectful communication.

You will discover the surprising insights that can arise from 'leaning into' conflict as it shows up in our lives.

We will work with the four language tools of Marshall Rosenberg's Nonviolent Communication to:

Identify our habitual reactions and find new ways to respond

Find ways to talk that create cooperation and willingness

Listen to others in ways that create connection

Enjoy the deep satisfaction and fun of meeting needs, including our own, in relationships

www.talkyourpeace.com.au

You can apply this training to parenting, intimate relationships, family, workplaces, strangers or your own relationship with yourself. It will suit both those new to the principles of NVC and those who have previously attended courses.
